Shipping policy: Ownership of wine purchased transfers to the customer in California. Our standard method of shipping is UPS Ground. Please ship to your business address if possible to ensure that someone is there to sign for the wine. All wine shipments require an adult signature and cannot be left at the door. Shipping surcharges due to changes, incorrect address, or failure to deliver, will be passed to you. If the weather is not conducive to ground shipment, unless you tell us otherwise, we will hold your shipment so that it arrives to you in optimum condition. If you prefer, we will ship your wine via the company and method of your choice at the cost quoted to us by the shipping company. Please be patient with us in the shipping process. We are a small operation, orders are processed weekly, so shipping may take a few days longer than expected.

Thanks for your order!
